

BUREAU OF JEWISH EDUCATION OF SAN FRANCISCO, MARIN COUNTY AND THE PENINSULA: BASIS - THE EDUCATION AND ENGAGEMENT PROJECT IN THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA JEWISH DAY SCHOOLS LOGIC MODEL

INFLUENTIAL FACTORS	RESOURCES	ACTIVITIES	OUTPUTS	SHORT-TERM OUTCOMES (within 1 year)	INTERMEDIATE-TERM OUTCOMES (within 2-4 years)	IMPACT (sustainable changes)
Effectiveness of BJE's management structure, communication with schools, clarity of expectations, and timeline to help schools' reach project goals Timeliness of receiving JJF grant funds Teacher and community buy-in for project at each of the schools	BJE will provide example curricula and models, experts, trainings, Community of Practice meetings, Israel Forum workshops to support schools' planning BJE will link with other Israel education organizations to expand available training and resources to the schools JJF will provide $360 per student; a basket of consultants; access to iCenter resources; and timely payment for project management, educators professional development, and BASIS evaluation	Schools, in partnership with BASIS development team, will provide professional development for and coordinate with teachers to design and provide high-quality Israel education Schools will develop knowledge- and skill -based learning objectives for students and will assess progress on those objectives Schools will develop goals for the types of student engagement they desire students to have with Israel Schools will develop long-term Israel education plans, based on the identified objectives and goals, that are comprehensive and sequenced by starting with a plan for one or a few grade levels in and expanding the plan to include all grade levels by the end of the 4 years Schools will implement the new and enhanced student-focused strategies outlined in their plans: curricula, school events, shlichim, family education, twinning and partnerships programs, Israel trips, technology, and arts and culture Schools will update their visions and mission statements and their logic models as needed to guide their ongoing strategies	# of teachers trained Teacher satisfaction with training Amount of teachers who include Israel education in their instruction # of students who participate in various Israel education strategies Amount of time students spend on Israel education Student satisfaction with Israel education instruction/activities they receive	Increases in educators' knowledge about, connection to, and engagement with Israel Increases in capacity of teachers to design, plan, and teach Israel education Increases in student learning about Israel (e.g., its geography, its history, its people and their cultures, its geopolitical issues, its cultural/religious issues) Increases in student connection to and engagement with Israeli people and the role Israel plays in the Jewish community worldwide	Increases in families' knowledge about, connection to, and engagement with Israel Increases in the visibility of Israel in school environments, including surroundings (portraiture), programming (adult education), place of Israel in the overall school life beyond celebratory Israel days Increases in resources relating to Israel (e.g., purchase of books for libraries, resources for music education, creation of learning centers, and other resources directed to Israel related topics) Increases in schools' use of in use of sustainable resources within the community to support and fund Israel education capacity building and programming	School mission statements and planning and professional development structures will incorporate Israel education as an essential piece of Jewish education Schools will have developed sustainable Israel education plans and strategies by incorporating Israel education into their budgets and ongoing fundraising efforts Schools will have more available resources and capacity to support ongoing Israel education Israel education will play a more instrumental role in school life and curriculum

BJE=The Bureau of Jewish Education, Schools=The eleven Jewish day schools participating in BASIS